Weekly Highlights

Best leads the way:

Brad Best fired 727 (233-258-236 – 121 pins over average for three games) on lanes 9 & 10 in the Sunday Morning Classic League (SMCL) at Hi-Way Bowl to lead the way in Lambton County Tenpin Association (LCTA) bowling action this past week. Best is having a good year in the SMCL averaging 201 for 66 games.

Lapointe is second best:

Ben Lapointe tossed 717 (267-194-256) on lanes 3 & 4 in the Target Trios League (TTL) at Hi-Way Bowl to record the second high triple of the week in LCTA bowling competition. The high revs right hander now has a career 62- 700 plus triples to his credit. Lapointe is averaging 222 in the TTL this year.

Little is men's high over average:

Dave Little rolled 643 (214-237-182 – 151 pins over average for three games) in the RCAFA 403 Wing Mixed League to take the honours for high over average in LCTA bowling activity this past week. This writer believes that his 643 is his highest career personal triple nipping his previous 642 with his highest single game at 279.

Dave started bowling at age 15 at Hi-Way Bowl. After 2 years, he left the lanes and returned 5 years later to bowl in the Airey Lanes Mixed League where he took up the roll as the league secretary. He took time off from bowling a few years later and returned in the 2000-2001 season when he joined the Marcin Bowl Ontario Hydro League where he was league secretary for 9 years bowling in the league for 15 years. In the 2015-2016 season, he joined the Marcin Bowl Sarnia Aamjiwnaang Mixed League for three years where he was president of the league. He has since returned to the RCAFA league and this year the once a week bowler is averaging 164 for 45 games. He has consistently averaged between 160 and 166 with his highest average being 166 in the 2014-2015 season. Besides bowling, baseball, darts and driving his “Harley” occupy his time.

Culley is 100 pins over average:

Jamie Culley wheeled 679 (289-247) in the Target Trios League at Hi-Way Bowl to register the week's high over average for a single game. His 289 was 104 pins over average which will qualify him to receive a watch from the Canadian Tenpin Federation in recognition of his achievement.

Thompson is ladies high over average:

Annette Thompson tossed 649 (220 – 194 – 256 – 88 pins over average – 145 pins over average for three games) in the Target Trios League at Hi-Way Bowl to take the honours for the ladies high over average in both the single game and three game departments.
