They are followed by Roy Mezzatesta at 217 (78 games) and Jill Friis at 217 (42 games). Jill has a career 8-300's one of which was bowled in the 1999 35th addition of the AMF (American Machine and Foundry – now known as Bowlero Corporation) World Cup Tournament which was held in Las Vegas, Nevada. That year Jill was 36 years old carrying a 200 average when she represented Canada bowling against 64 other ladies from 64 different world countries. She was eliminated from the tournament after 40 games averaging 203 and ended up in 12th position. She was voted as the sportswoman of the tournament. Jill's 300 game was only the second perfect game rolled by a woman in the AMF tournament at that time. The first came in 1997, in Cairo, by Shalin Zulkifli of Malaysia. Bowling a 300 in league play is exciting but bowling a perfect game in a world tournament this writer believes is etched in Jill's memory for life.
