Kongus rolls rare triplicate:

Mel Kongus rolled a rare triplicate in the Border City Men's League at Marcin Bowl as he posted a 549 (183-183-183).

Schofield wins 5 gold medals:

CONGRATULATIONS goes to Kevin Schofield for his fantastic bowling in the World Police and Fire Games (WPAFG) this year held in August in Rotterdam Netherlands. Schofield, a retired police officer, won 5 gold medals at the tournament in the 10-pin bowling category. He won the singles, doubles, team championships, all events and capped it all off by winning the step ladder final where the top 5 bowlers participate in man to man elimination play. Schofield now has won 28 medals since he first participated in the WPAFG in 2001– 16 gold, 7 silver and 5 bronze. Kevin also had a perfect game in his final game in the singles match coming from behind to be victorious. He rolled a total of 17 games averaging a super 221. This was his most successful WPAFG tournament ever beating out his 2013 performance in Belfast where he won 4 golds and 1 silver. Schofield has taken part in the WPAFG in Indianapolis, Barcelona Spain, Adelaide Australia, Belfast, Ireland, Chengdu China, Quebec City, Vancouver, Los Angeles, New York and Fairfax Virginia. Before this year's tournament started, he was inducted into the WPAFG Hall of Fame. His outstanding performance on the lanes this year proved why he was a unanimous choice to enter the prestigious club.
